III. Role of Compliance Officer

The compliance officer shall report to the board of directors and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, if any, or to the Chairman of the board of directors at such frequency as may be stipulated by the board of directors.

The Compliance Officer shall assist all employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Company's Code of Conduct.

The Compliance officer shall have all the powers as are prescribed by law and also to ensure that this code is put to into practice and to do all things deeds, matters, acts and things necessary to give effect to these regulations in true spirit and all things incidental and ancillary thereto.

IV. Restriction on Communication and Trading by Insiders

1. All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no insider shall communicate or provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or securities of the Company, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.
2. Any inducement and procurement of unpublished price sensitive information not in furtherance of one's legitimate duties and discharge of obligations would be illegal under this code.
3. Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:-
 - (i) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of

KENNAMETAL INDIA LIMITED

informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or

- (ii) not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of aforesaid sub-clause (ii) and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

2. Need to Know:

- (i) “need to know” basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
- (ii) All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

3. Maintenance of confidential information

Physical and manual documents/files containing confidential information should be kept secure. Electronic files containing confidential information must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

V. Prevention of misuse of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

Employees and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role ("designated persons") in the Company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

1. Trading Plan

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

2. Trading Plan shall:

- i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results. Example: For quarter ended June 30 the result announcement date is August 10, then insider cannot execute his trading plan between March 20 to August 12.
 - iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
 - iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
 - vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
3. The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.
4. The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

Provided, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the

Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

5. Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to BSE Ltd. on which the securities are listed.

VI. Trading Window and Window Closure

1. a. 'The trading period' means the trading period of the stock exchanges, called 'trading window', is available for trading in the Company's securities.
 - b. The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed 7 days prior to and during the time the unpublished price sensitive information is published.
 - c. During the trading window closure period the Specified Persons shall not trade in the Company's securities during such period.
 - d. Specified Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred to in Point No. (ii) above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.
2. The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated employees of the Company when he determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.
3. The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
4. The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company.

VII. Pre-clearance of trades

All Specified Persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is opened and if the value of the proposed trades is above 500 shares or up to Rs. 5 Lakhs (market value), whichever is less in one transactions or series of transactions, should pre-clear the transaction. However, no designated person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade. The pre-dealing procedure shall be hereunder:

- i) An application may be made in the prescribed Form as aspecified in Annexure 1 to this code to the Compliance officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Specified Employee intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the Company in this behalf.
- ii) An undertaking shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Specified Employee incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:
 - (a) That the employee/director/officer does not have any access or has not received "Price Sensitive Information" up to the time of signing the undertaking.
 - (b) That in case the Specified Employee has access to or receives "Price Sensitive Information" after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
 - (c) That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - (d) That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.

Format of undertaking is attached as Annexure 2 to this code.

- (iii) Specified Person(s) shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within one week after the approval of pre-clearance is given.
